

What is the Future of La Jolla Cove and Scripps Park?

Join us for a public workshop and take part in developing a long-term plan for the Ellen Browning Scripps Memorial Park, home to La Jolla Cove and 5.6 acres along the Pacific Ocean.

Members of the community are invited to be our guests at

The Scripps Park Project Workshop

Saturday, November 19, 2005

8:30 a.m. Registration and Continental Breakfast
9:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Presentation, Park Tour, "Hands On"
Workgroup Sessions, and Lunch

LA JOLLA COVE SUITES

1155 Coast Boulevard • La Jolla, California 92037

$8 parking at La Jolla Cove Suites or available parking on surrounding streets

Workshop attendees are also invited to experience the park after dark.

Join us Friday, November 18, 2005,

from 5:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m.

at the La Jolla Cove Bridge Club, located in the park.

Please respond with your confirmation and number of participants to rsvp@ScrippsPark.com or call 858-220-9001.

For more information on this important community project, to share your opinions or to review the Cultural Landscape Report showcasing the park's history please visit www.ScrippsPark.com

WORKSHOP WILL INCLUDE:

- Professional facilitator to achieve maximum efficiency and collaboration
- Opportunity for community leaders, civic organization representatives and the public to share their voice and opinion
- Discussion of the park's history and issues including erosion, pollutants, manmade structures and future park use

Dedicated to the development and implementation of a long-term plan to preserve, restore, and enhance the Ellen Browning Scripps Memorial Park, incorporating extensive community involvement.